Fulton Jr. Farmers

WALCOTT - The May meeting of the Fulton Jr. Farmers was held at Crabapple Community Building with 21 members, three leaders, and a visitor present. Hosts were Lee Lensch, Alan and Gary Ehrecke.

The club decided to play in the county softball tournament again this year. It was announced that a purebred Angus, Shorthorn and Hereford steer and heifer show will be held July 17 at the Glen Swanson farm. Randy Dierickx, Vaughn Bein, Paul Riessen, and Lee Lensch were appointed to the club tour committee. It was announced that an Interstate Exchange meeting will be held May 12.

Presentations given were "Don't Overlook the Danger's of Small Hand Tools" by Darrell Riessen; "Keep Farm Trucks Rolling" by Paul Riessen; "How to Measure Against Dry Seasons" by Meyers. Pledge of allegiance David Hering; "Largemouth Bass" by Vance Bein; Keith Martz and "Push Your Swine Faster to Market" by Bart Paulsen.

The next meeting will be June 14 with a wiener roast at the Bill Ehrlicke home. Brian Martz, reporter.

Lincoln Go-Getters

The Lincoln Go Getters Mother-Daughter meeting was held in the meeting room of Central Trust and Savings Bank, Eldridge, on May 15.

All Sr. and Jr. girls presented a style show for their mothers and grandmothers. Each girl modeled something they either made or purchased.

Sharon Spies and Nancy Klindt each entertained with two piano solos. Lisa Bell and Colleen Claussen each read a poem.

After the style show everyone played cards and prizes were given to the 11 high scorers: Mrs. L.W. Kuehl, Phyllis Hamann, Elaine Johnson, Ione Schneekloth, Jan Jamann, Janet Scherer, Diana Frahm, Julie Klindt, Gwen Hamann, Sue Puls and Donna Scherer. Booby prize went to Rhonda Slightom. Tina Moore, reporter.

Cleona Clippers Sr.

The Cleona Clippers Sr. held their May 17 meeting at the S-M Bldg., Walcott with the Holst brothers as hosts.

Roll call was "Problem weeds". Our yearly club tour was discussed. It will be held on June 21 beginning at 7 a.m. at Russ Geurink's farm. A 10 o'clock milk and donut meal will be eaten at Dutton's Park in Durant around 1 o'clock. Softball practice will be held following the meal.

Club citizenship projects were discussed and it will be looked into by some of our members. Softball practices will be held on Sunday mornings from 10 to noon at the Walcott Park.

The program consisted of talks: "Good Hay Comes In Big Packages", Mike Feuerbach; "Rabies Prevention Procedures", Rod Dietz and "Pre-Season Baler Check-up", Glen Korthaus.

The next meeting will be our club tour on June 21. Glen Korthaus, reporter.

Buffalo Busy Bees

The regular meeting of the Buffalo Busy Bees was called Riessen to order by President Penny Meyer. Pledge of allegiance was led by Vickie Durant. Roll call was "Name A Part Of The Sewing Machine."

There was no secretary's report. The treasurer's report was read and approved. Bills were for a flash bar for the camera.

The Bill Ehrlicke home. Brian Old business was Achievement Show to be held July 10 at the Blue Grass Church. Items should be in place by 9:30. Sue Saur, Vickie Durant, Penny Meyer, Jodie Mokhtar, Marti Minnick and Ann Bobcock volunteered to help pin and write. Other old business was baseball practice to be held Thursday, May 20 at 7 p.m. at the Blue Grass School. Our coach will be Joe Saur and we are going to give him $10 for coaching.

New business is Memorial Day Parade to be held at the Blue Grass Cemetery on Memorial Day at 10. We thought about making a float for "Homecoming" in Blue Grass and maybe for "Walcott Days." We appointed Sue Saur, Jill Porstmann, Kathy Wulf, Renee Babcock, Laurie Chalupa and Penny Meyer to look into it.

Carolyn Porstmann adjourned the meeting and Renee Babcock seconded it.

A skit on how to make cookies was done by Carolyn Porstmann, Sue Saur and Renee Babcock.

Janet Porstmann went over the fair list with the mothers. Lunch was served by Vickie Durant. Shari Freund, reporter.
